Royalty applications for 2008-2009 are available on the NWSC website. Amanda Bolz will hold a clinic on how the Royalty contest works.

There will also be a fundraising opportunity bagging groceries at Cub Foods. The dates were determined at the May meeting. July 19, July 26, and August 2 the final date was determined and will be posted soon.

A youth is considered 17 and under as of January 1

Adult Member Happenings

At our April Meeting the following items were discussed. For further information see minutes on NWSC website...

- 1) Please make sure that your information is correct for the WSCA registration by June. 30. You can contact John Bolz or Tim Wampfler to check your information. It was sent out to those who have correct e-mail last month.
- 2) The sign up for helping at all of the NWSC shows was passed around. You can still sign up at all meetings.
- 3) The vote for the bylaws will take place at the July meeting. The bylaw changes were sent to all members.
- 4) Shirts and sweatshirts are for sale. They all have the Northwest emblem on them. Shirts are $20 and sweatshirts are $25. Please pay Barb Charpentier.
- 5) Be sure to read the website monthly to keep you informed. There are many links to informative information.
- 5) Tables were purchased and used during the Quarter Horse Show and Auction.
- 5) Deadline for Newsletter entries will be due the tenth of every month. Please have anything for the newsletter in by the 10th to tgmickey_shadow@yahoo.com The newsletter will be sent out the 15th of every month.

Clubhouse Shows and Events

Spring clean up was done on Sunday June 8. The grounds and buildings were cleaned up and things were organized. Thank you to all who helped with this event.

Thank you to those who helped

Help Wanted and Items Needed Everyone's time is valuable and limited too, but nothing in our club can get done without you!

Our show season is here, which means we need everyone's help. Without your help in the many opportunities that are available, we can't succeed. Any volunteering time counts toward your membership time commitments

Each month there will be Help Wanted postings. The postings for this month are as follows

Volunteers Needed: Sign up for volunteer slots to help with any of the NWSC shows at every meeting.

Volunteers Needed: Volunteer to chaperone the July youth sleep make the Quarter Horse Show, auction and raffle a success. It was a great time for all. Thank you youth for putting on the pancake breakfast.

The next show will be July 6th. It is the All Youth Show. We need adults to help run the events. The show begins at 8:00 am.

over taking place at the clubhouse July 5th-6th. Contact Carolyn Sween or Sam Curren youth officers to sign up.

Riding: The art of keeping a horse between you and the ground. ~Author Unknown
Horses and children, I often think, have a lot of the good sense there is in the world.
