Youth News

The egg hunt was fun and successful! (A special thanks to Mary and Kirsten Bradley for donating the candy!)

We have a new member and her name is Nicole!

Trailer wash (kind of confirmed date) at quarter horse show from noon to four.

Possibly before next meeting we are selling pizza to help raise funds. Thinking a dollar a slice.

We kicked off the first game show and it was a big success!

All novice show went according to plan!

-Thanks, from the youth of North West Saddle Club, for helping make things happen!

~Ashley Olson

Attention NWSC Members!

We are looking for people to help with the silent auction set up in June during the Quarter Horse show. Also don't forget to ask around for donations with the donation forms that will be provided at the meetings or I can send you one. Each family needs to bring at least one item valued at $25. Please bring to the June 7 meeting. PLEASE WE NEED LOTS OF DONATIONS! Please contact Barb Charpentier at 651-462-1900.

DO YOU OWN A QUARTER HORSE?

Then, bring it to this Quarter Horse show on June 11th and 12th at your club grounds, NORTHWEST SADDLE CLUB!!

This show is for you! We are having lots of NOVICE youth and amateur classes, lots of Amateur classes and some open classes. We are having some GREEN classes Too!!

There is halter, showmanship, English, Western, trail, western riding, driving and a couple of game classes! Go to our website (nwsaddleclub.org) and see the show bill, sign up early (by June 1st) and get the deal on pre-entries.

A beautiful Montana Silversmiths belt buckle will be awarded to the high point Novice youth and another to the High Point Novice Amateur compliments of Northwest!

The American Quarter Horse Association awards youth, amateur and open high point gorgeous BIG bronze horse trophies to the high point champions in those three categories if you have never won one previously: just ask Ashley Ellefson and Barb Charpentier who won them last year!
